PAROLE VIOLATORS

All juveniles returning to ADJC from parole are placed on "pending suspension/revocation" status until a hearing is completed. One of three outcomes can occur at the hearing: parole reinstatement, parole reinforcement or parole revocation. The parole reinforcement program was terminated in June of 2004. A juvenile can also be discharged or released, however, that action is initiated independent of the revocation process. Parole revocation results in a juvenile returning to a secure safe school.

Length of Stay Served

Although most juveniles committed to the Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections (ADJC) are given a court-ordered minimum length of stay by a juvenile court judge, the department has the discretion of keeping a juvenile until they have completed their appropriate program. The table below indicates the average length of stay a juvenile stayed within each status by gender.

DISCHARGES

A discharge is when a juvenile is released from ADJC custody. This may occur for different reasons. A juvenile may become an adult at age 18, be transferred to the adult court jurisdiction, or may have earned an absolute discharge.
